DEATH IN AUTO ACCIDENT ADDS TO WEEK'S HORRORS

EXTRA 1 KILLED, 1 HURT AS CAR HITS THE DITCH

Driver of George Beckley's New Racing Car Killed When Speeding Machine Leaves Road Near Wahiawa—Henry Hustace Sent to Hospital Badly Hurt—Auto Races at Kapiolani Park Tomorrow Afternoon May Be Called Off

Flung from the powerful American racing car brought here by George Beckley, for the Kapiolani park races, the driver, Berteliot, was instantly killed, and young Henry Hustace, who was in the machine, was thrown out and painfully injured when the big auto turned over and over on the road at Pukaki hill, at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. Hustace was rushed to the Queen's hospital as fast as wheels could turn, and the police automobile ambulance was sent to the scene of the accident to bring back the body of the dead French driver.

Hustace suffered a broken arm and painful scratches about the head and face. He is the son of Frank Hustace, of the firm of Hustace & Peck, and is a racing driver himself, having driven a car in the January 1 races.

The car in the accident today was the big American racer specially imported by Mr. Beckley, to compete in the races at the carnival, and Berteliot was "tuning her up" when the accident happened.

The automobile races, scheduled for tomorrow, may be abandoned because of the accident.

Berteliot came here with the French aviator, Didier Masson, and was to have driven the big car in the races tomorrow. Buffum, the other driver employed by Beckley, was to have driven the smaller American car entered by Beckley. Berteliot has been at work constantly for some days tuning up the big racer.

It is a remarkable coincidence, and a feature in the sensational chain of fatal accidents during the past few days, that both of the racing cars specially imported for the Kapiolani contests have been put out of business by bad mishaps. Henry Gaillard Smart's speedy car was smashed to pieces when it went off the new belt road last Saturday afternoon while speeding in a "tune-up" for the races. The Beckley car is reported to be not so badly damaged.

Berteliot was also known as Berteliot, and best-known by his nickname of "Frenchie". He came to Honolulu as a mechanic for Masson about two years ago. After Masson left, Berteliot went out to Lilehua, where he was chief mechanic in a garage that made a specialty of the care of officers' cars. Later, he drove a car belonging to Blanche Martin. He had been employed at George Beckley's garage only a short time, and had spent all of his time tuning up the high-power racer for the race tomorrow.

The car was on its way to Wahiawa when it ran into the ditch.

MANY MEASURES KEEP SOLONS BUSY

It was not until just before the end of the morning session of the senate that the real feature of the day's work bobbed into view, with the announcement by Senator Cooke that he proposes to introduce an act to repeal the act 69, passed by the last legislature, imposing certain restrictions on the recruiting of laborers. In speaking of this bill, Mr. Cooke said, after the session was over, "Act 69 is a disgrace to the territory, and I feel that it can not be repealed too soon."

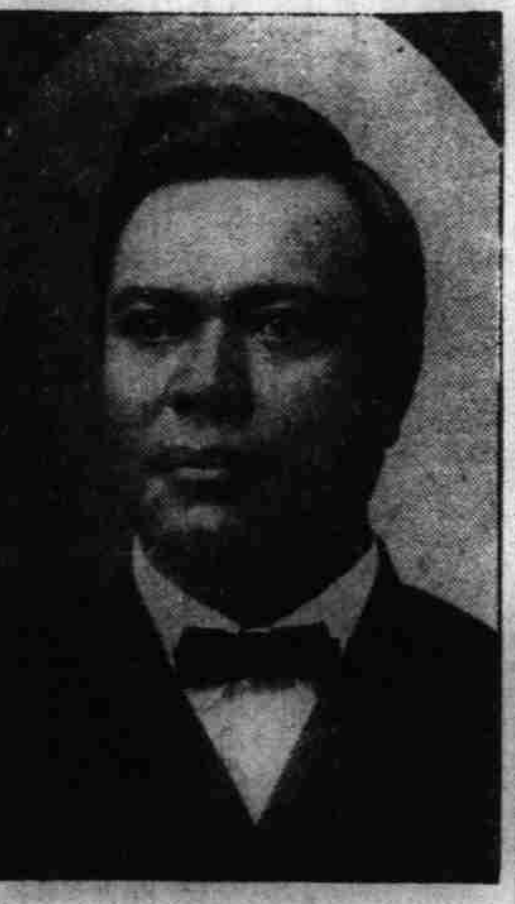

For the rest, the senate droned along in a humdrum manner, much of the time being consumed by the reading of the minutes of yesterday's work, while the senators fiddled impatiently in their seats, and the outlookers in the rows of chairs outside the rail yawned and stretched. Albert Judd came to the relief of the expectant ones by giving notice that he intends to introduce a bill providing for the compilation of the laws of the territory and the making of a dictionary of the Hawaiian tongue, so that in future attorneys and courts may have an authoritative book on that language.

There were symptoms of a clash when Senator Chillingworth proposed that the body adjourn until Monday morning in order to allow time for "country members" to attend the parade and the landing of Kamehameha tomorrow, but this was headed off and the motion was finally carried without serious opposition. The senate will therefore convene for work Monday at 10 o'clock.

SENATE Second Day

Immediately after the opening prayer by the Rev. Mr. Akina, the chief justice administered the oath of office to Senator Penhallow, the call followed and the second day of the senate session was formally launched, at ten minutes past ten

HOUSE TAKES HOLIDAY AFTERNOON SESSION.

The house reconvened at 2 o'clock this afternoon, when a number of resolutions were introduced. During the noon recess the chairman of committees met with the speaker at a cabinet session, to confer on various bills.

One of the first measures of the afternoon was a concurrent resolution asking Congress to give the Kona Water Company the necessary rights to water in the Kona district, and to lease territorial lands requisite therefor, offered by E. K. Kaaua. This, to give the corporation the power to provide irrigation in that region, particularly for homesteaders. It was referred to the public lands committee.

On the motion of Representative D. K. Kaupiko, at 2:30 p. m., that the house adjourn to 10 a. m. Monday, the session ended.

Speaker Holstein, before this, announced that if there were no objections, he would order H. B. No. 1, the measure providing the house's expenses, to be placed on the order of business Monday morning for third reading. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Afternoon Resolutions.

H. R. No. 28—By D. K. Kaupiko, to appropriate $4000 for dredging the landing at Hoopuloa, South Kona, Hawaii.

H. R. No. 29—By E. K. Kaaua, to appropriate $2000 for dredging the landing at Hookena, South Kona, Hawaii.

Afternoon House Bills.

H. B. No. 32—To amend Sec. 14 of act 39 of the laws of 1905, relating to the election of county officers, setting the date of election of all save those for Oahu on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May, to take effect in 1915, and such officers to take their places at noon the first Monday the following July.—Geo. P. Cooke.

MERCHANTS HOLDING MONTHLY MEETING

The Merchants' Association is holding its monthly session at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Besides the usual business there will be the election of a president, who will probably be the present vice president, O. C. Swain of Lewers & Cooke, Ltd., necessitating also the election of a successor to him, which in turn may create a vacancy in another office to be filled.

Late wireless from the Mongolia is to the effect that the vessel should reach Honolulu on or about ten o'clock tomorrow morning. The Mongolia is bringing one hundred and forty passengers from the coast.

Tickets are now on sale at the office of the promotion committee for the military tournament which takes place at Kapiolani Park Saturday afternoon, beginning at half-past three o'clock. The military parade on Saturday morning will start at a quarter of ten o'clock.

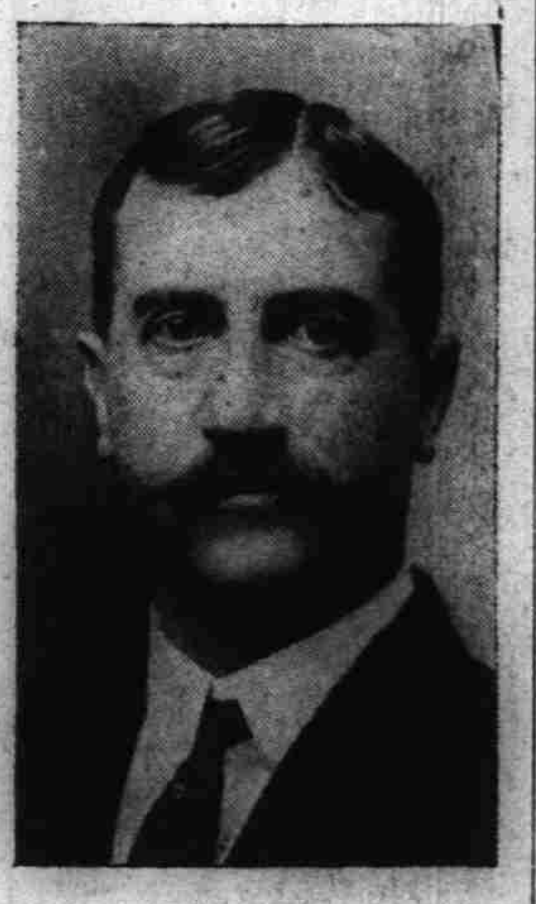

Before starting on the road to ruin a man should secure a return ticket.

Tomorrow the eighth annual Mid-Pacific Carnival is fairly on. Tomorrow morning a great fleet of war canoes, that will have been lying off port for several hours under cover of the early morning dusk, will sail in from the outer reefs and the historic landing of Kamehameha I will be reproduced.

John H. Wise, chairman of the regatta committee, reported to Director-General Charles F. Chillingworth this morning that the preparations for the landing are practically complete. From all over the islands canoes and lusty Hawaiians have been coming to Honolulu to take part in the big pageant.

Tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock the race meet at Kapiolani park will begin. Horse racing will fill the program until about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when there will be two auto races, at ten and twenty miles.

One of the biggest crowds that ever attended an event at Waikiki beach is expected to witness the pageant tomorrow. Special cars will be run on all lines by the Rapid Transit company. Spectators are advised to secure places at the beach before nine o'clock. Director-General Chillingworth said this morning that he expects Kamehameha and his royal retinue to land at Waikiki, at the Outrigger club grounds, at 9 o'clock promptly. The canoes will be taken off port early tomorrow morning.

UP GO THE FLAGS FOR FLORAL PARADE

"I am certainly pleased with the enthusiasm with which the merchants and business men of the city are entering into the spirit of the Floral Parade and Carnival," said Director-General Chillingworth this morning, as he stood on Fort street and watched the hundreds of flags flapping in the breeze, and the other decorations which adorn the fronts of the various places of business. "But it does not seem that the decorations are quite complete. There ought to be more."

In response to the call sounded by the committee in charge of decorating the business section of the city for the Floral Parade and Carnival, the merchants of the city have now nearly completed their decorating with the result that during the last few days the city has taken on a very attractive appearance. Bunting, flags and streamers have been used in profusion, and through the work of the committee in charge of the decorations, flags have been strung between the buildings on each side of King street for several blocks, and many of the other thoroughfares have been decorated in the same manner.

While there are a number of the business houses that have resorted to no outside decorations, they have arranged attractive window displays appropriate to the occasion. Fort street this morning presented a riot of color and many of the stores are still decorating.

Permanent Improvements

The second of these bills is for objects in the nature of permanent improvements and purposes incidental thereto; the appropriations for which should not lapse with the present biennial period, as the work under some of them may extend into the next period. The largest group of items in this bill is for completing the reconstruction of the judiciary, for moving a temporary accommodations incidental to that work, and for furnishing that building. It is found impossible even after cutting down the plans and specifications to complete the building within the amount appropriated. The appropriations for moving and temporary accommodations and furniture have proved entirely inadequate. Steel furniture has been ordered under the present appropriation of $10,000 for the portions of the building in which it is most needed. The additional amount required, as inserted in the bill, is $25,000. This is on the view that the furniture in the court rooms and the judges' rooms will be of wood. If the legislature is of the opinion that this furniture, excepting the chairs, should be of steel, the amount should be increased to $50,000. The item for the Mahukona wharf and wharf shed is required because of the recent partial destruction of that wharf by an unusually high sea. The new Girls' Industrial School has been completed as fast as possible under the appropriation made by the last legislature. An additional amount of

A. E. MURPHY SUDDENLY STRICKEN

A. E. Murphy, clerk in the U. S. district court, sustained a shock of paralysis at 2 o'clock this afternoon at his office. He was taken in an ambulance to his home, where at 3 o'clock this afternoon he is reported to be seriously ill with physicians in attendance. Most constant attendance.

The name of Miss Pearl Littlejohn, who as "a society bud" does such good work in "The Tourist," and that of John Hills, who plays "The Policeman," were through a mistake omitted from the program last night. Their excellent work makes the omission the more regrettable. Miss Beryl Hunter-Jones, who made the big hit as the leading lady, plays the part of Kalima Dollary, not, as stated on the hastily prepared program, that of Ambrosia. Ambrosia in the play is Miss Helen Latham.

Declines to Become Provisional President, Expecting to Enter Name at Elections—Huerta Will Not Oppose Him—Rebel General Cables His Uncle, Porfirio Diaz, "You Are Avenged on Your Former Foe—Zapatistas Plan to Make Trouble

(Associated Press Cable) MEXICO CITY, Feb. 20.—Felix Diaz is likely to be the next president of the republic. He has declined to accept to accept the provisional presidency, say his friends, as he expects to enter his name at his election. It is believed here that an arrangement between himself and General Huerta has been made whereby Diaz will not be opposed by that general.

Huerta has formally declined to accept the responsibility for the fate of ex-President Madero, and announces that the new cabinet will have to decide that de la Barra, whom it is said Madero planned to kill, is the only member of this body that is known to be counselling moderation in dealing with the late head of the government. The others are said to favor sending Madero to an insane asylum, and others are demanding his execution for the murder of Col. V. Riva-roli, slain by Madero when he was arrested. None of the members of the cabinet will hear of exiling the late president, declaring that it would simply be giving him an opportunity to form new plots on the peace of the republic.

General Diaz today cabled to his uncle, former President Porfirio Diaz, "You are now avenged upon your former foe."

More trouble looms ahead for the republic, in the statement of the leaders of the Zapatistas to the effect that they will not support the new government. It is believed that these rebels will continue their warfare against the administration.

The best unofficial estimate of the number of killed during the recent fighting is three thousand, and seven thousand wounded.
